ALL-STARS ARE EASY FOR VIGILANT CLUB

Potomac Leaguers Are Defeated by Local Semi-pros. 11 to 3-Dixon in Great Form.

LINCOLNS TRIM CLARENDON

In the second game at Andrews Park yesterday the Vigilaht team had an easy time winning from the All-Star Potomac time winning from the All-Star Potomac League club, landing the contest, il to 3. Menderson, who started the hurling for the All-Stars, went along nicely until the fourth inning, when he became wild, and along with three timely hits the Vigilants dented the pan four times, which put them in the lead.

Dixon, who was on the mound for the Vigilants, got off to a bad start, allowing the Potomac League outfit to tally three runs in the second session, but outside of this bad inning he showed the best of form and was never in danger.

side of this bad inning he showed the best of form and was never in danger. The hitting of Hager and Steel and the fleiding of Davis and Wood were the features of the game. Score:
